About COMPASS

COMPASS is Craft Scotland's brand-new learning and development programme created specifically for makers. Compass is generously supported by the William Grant Foundation and Creative Scotland.

COMPASS focuses on developing talent and equipping individuals with the necessary skills to create a sustainable craft career and business. We have created three programmes to provide support for a wide range of craft careers; Next Generation, Emerging Maker and Established Maker. Before applying, please research the best programme for you.

COMPASS offers a unique mix of active learning, mentoring and specialist advice. Participants can learn about finance, marketing, branding, selling effectively, entrepreneurship and more.

About COMPASS: Established Maker Programme

COMPASS: Established Maker Programme offers tailored one to one support to established makers through mentoring and specialist advice or support for training and development.

This learning and development opportunity is open to established professional makers who are looking to develop themselves and/or their practice. An established maker would ideally be someone who has been practicing for four or more years. Applicants must demonstrate a clear commitment to developing their craft practice.

Do you feel in need of challenge or momentum, or you are not sure how to move forwards with a particular aspect of your practice? If so, then this programme might be for you.

What types of learning opportunities can Craft Scotland support?

COMPASS: Established Maker Programme is for you if you are a maker who is producing high-quality craft and you would like to take your practice to the next level. We are particularly interested in makers that can demonstrate they have the potential, drive and ambition to do so.

Craft Scotland will primarily support one-to-one business and creative mentoring but will also consider other learning and development activities that will allow for significant development opportunities.

The types of learning and development activity that we will look to support include:

- Providing a mentor or coach to help you through a particular challenge
- A contribution towards a development programme, a residency programme or a self-funded/self-initiated residency
- A contribution towards conference tickets/events that have a clear learning and development aspect
- A full or half-day workshop, course or class that has a significant learning and development aspect

If you are not sure of the solution that suits your needs, the Craft Scotland team can help you with this.

You may include travel, accommodation and care costs as part of your budget, however these costs should account for no more than 25% of your overall budget.

Please note that we cannot support existing Craft Scotland activity e.g. a workshop or course that is offered and subsidised by Craft Scotland. We are also not able to provide capital funding towards assets.

If you are not sure whether the particular learning and development activity you are considering is eligible, please get in touch to discuss.

How much can I apply for?

You can apply for up to £1,200 (including VAT) towards the cost of your learning and development activity.

Please note that we would like successful applicants to make a small financial contribution towards the learning and development activity and so we are not able to fund the entire costs.

When you are preparing your budget for the learning and development activity, please be sure to show how much your contribution is. We would like this contribution to be a minimum 10% of the overall costs.

Please be aware that your contribution should not be in-kind costs. In-kind costs are goods or services provided instead of cash for one of your project budget line-items, for example someone may give their time in-kind rather than charging a cash amount.

Key dates

There are two deadlines each year as follows:

Deadline 1: 5pm, Thursday 20 June 2019

Applications open in April and will be open for approximately eight weeks. All applications received during this time will be assessed by a panel after the deadline for submissions has passed.

All applicants will be notified regarding the outcome of their application by Friday 19 July 2019.

Deadline 2: 5pm, Thursday 21 November 2019

Applications open in September and will be open for approximately eight weeks. All applications received during this time will be assessed by a panel after the deadline for submissions has passed.

All applicants will be notified regarding the outcome of their application by Friday 20 December 2019.

Please ensure that you send your application to us in plenty of time before you hope to start your learning and development activity. The learning and development activity that you are applying for should not start before:

For deadline 1: Friday 19 July 2019

For deadline 2: Friday 20 December 2019

In exceptional circumstances we may be able to agree funding out with the deadlines outlined. Please get in touch if you would like to discuss.

Responsibilities

Your commitment:

- Be prepared to make a financial contribution towards the learning and development activity that you are applying for. This contribution should be a minimum of 10% of the overall costs
- Provide a written report at the end of your project, outlining your outcomes and learnings (we may publish this)
- Maintain communication with the Craft Scotland team throughout your learning and development activity
- Contribute to any case studies, articles and written pieces as requested by Craft Scotland
- Provide feedback as requested at the end of your learning and development activity

What Craft Scotland will do:

- Make a financial contribution towards the learning and development activity that you are applying for. This contribution will be no more than 90% of the overall costs
- 70% of the costs towards the cost of your learning and development activity will be paid on successful application, the remaining 30% of the costs will be paid on completion of the report to Craft Scotland
- Work with the maker to find a suitable learning and development solution as necessary
- Find a suitable coach/mentor as necessary
- Provide support and guidance for each successful maker
- Maintain communication with each maker throughout the learning and development activity
- Evaluate COMPASS: Established Maker Programme

Eligibility

Applications are invited from makers working across all craft disciplines: ceramics, wood, jewellery, glass, textiles, furniture, lighting, leather, basketry, bookbinding, millinery, mosaics and more. If you are unsure if you are eligible, please contact Jo Scott, Project Manager by email jo@craftscotland.org.

This opportunity is suitable for a professional practising maker who has been in business for four years or more.

This programme is not designed for those who have just graduated, or those who have been in business for less than four years. The Next Generation programme of COMPASS is more suited to those individuals who have just started their practice and our Emerging Maker (link to programme) programme is suitable for craft businesses who have been in business for less than four years. Visit here for more details - NB Link to programme page.

Selection criteria & process

Selection for COMPASS: Established Maker Programme will be based upon the following criteria:

- Makers should be a professional craftsperson. This will be evidence based on artist statement, CV and images provided
- Makers should be working in one or more of the accepted disciplines
- All work should be the design of the maker and made by the maker (or small-batch production under their direct supervision)
- All work must reflect excellence and the unique vision of its maker, be well-conceived and skilfully made
- Evidence a clear commitment to develop a sustainable creative and business practice
- Demonstrate a clear learning and development outcome

A panel will meet to review all applications and select the successful makers. All applicants will be notified regarding the outcome of their application within four weeks after the closing date for applications.

How to apply

To apply, please submit your application online here

Before starting your application, please be aware that you will need to submit:

- A maker statement
- Your CV
- Images of five pieces of work– these should be representative of the type of work you are currently making
- An image of yourself. Preferably this would be a photograph of you at work, with your work, in your studio or delivering a workshop
- Answer specific questions about your business
- A budget for the learning and development activity

About Craft Scotland

Craft Scotland is the national development agency for craft. We put makers at the heart of all we do, championing diverse and high-quality contemporary craft. We help people learn about, appreciate and buy craft, promoting the contribution of craft to Scotland's cultural, economic and social well-being.

Through our exhibitions and events programmes, digital platforms and strategic partnerships, we provide leadership for the sector. We create opportunities for makers to develop their creative and business practice, and to exhibit and sell work in Scotland and beyond. We are a registered charity supported by Creative Scotland.
